

Adrienne Marziano

Objective

I have always believed in my own strength as a means for accomplishing anything. I extend a vast amount of my energy toward spreading a positive message through my daily interactions and behavior. I emanate honesty, as I am a true example of a trustworthy citizen, student, and friend to this world. Working in an environment where I can interact with others is a great match for my high energy and enthusiasm as well as my wish to positively influence in the world.

Education

November 2005 – January 2008 University of Phoenix: Online

Master's of Arts in Education: Cross-categorical special education degree

May 2005 – July 2005 Colorado State University Fort Collins, CO

Ethnographic Field School

August 2003 – May 2005 Colorado State University Fort Collins, CO

Bachelor's in Anthropology

March 2001 – December 2002 Aims Community College Greeley, CO

Associate of Arts

August 1999 – May 2000 Arcadia University Philadelphia, PA

- Academic Scholarship Awards, Achievement Award

Memberships/ Affiliations

President, Board of Directors: Round Mountain Institute

Vice President/Co-founder of the Anthropology Club at CSU

Member of Village Earth Organization

Member of the Young Voter's Project

Member of HCCA

Work experience

August 2005 – Currently Independent Educator

- I have been leading my own educational programs which include outdoor activities, music, art, etc...I also substitute teach throughout the school district.

Round Mountain Organics - InstructorNancy Wicks

- I assisted Nancy Wicks in the establishment of education programs at her farm, Round Mountain Organics. I was lead instructor for the children's summer farm camp.

September 2007 - CurrentlyCB School of Dance – Instructor Heidi Frazier; Bobbie Reinhardt

- I teach a variety of dance classes at the local dance school. This has been a lot of fun and a great opportunity to be creative!

Volunteer Experience

2006-2009: I have assisted with the "Celebrate the Beat" program at the CB Community School and Slate River School.

2005 - 2007: I volunteered at the Slate River School in Crested Butte. I helped with various grade levels as well as subject areas.

2004/2005: Sustainable Living Fair – Community Environmental Awareness

2003 – 2005: Anthropology Club; UNICEF; Village Earth; FREE; Trees, Water, People; Center for Justice, Peace, and Environment; Young Voter's Project, High Plains Society for Applied Anthropology conference.

August 2001 – May 2003: RMNP Outdoor Education Program for 6th-8th grade students.

General Interests

Like many people living in Colorado, I love the outdoors. When I have free time, I greatly enjoy hiking, backpacking, camping, skiing, and swimming in the river with my dog. We can't get enough of that fresh air and clean water.

Another interest of mine often lends for a camping option, as well – music. I love going to shows, listening to music and playing my guitar with some friends. Playing an instrument has allowed me to share my thoughts with others, as I like to write my own songs. This also relates to my studies in dance, specifically, modern jazz, tap, and African groove. It is a true passion of mine.

Basically, I enjoy being alive and healthy and I appreciate and cherish the ability to exercise my body and soul, especially outdoors.

References

Nancy Wicks, Round Mountain Institute, 970-641-4742, rmicb2002@yahoo.com

Bobbie Reinhardt, 970-349-5686

Karyn Adelman, 970-349-0105

